

Report to the Shareholders of ISLAMI BANK BANGLADESH PLC.
on
Compliance of Corporate Governance Code

Certificate as per Condition No.1(5)(xxvii) of the BSEC Corporate Governance Code

We have examined the compliance status to the Corporate Governance Code by Islami Bank Bangladesh PLC. for the year ended 31 December 2024. This Code relates to the Notification No. BSEC/CMRRCD/2006-158/207/Admin/80 dated 3 June 2018 of the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC).

Such compliance with the Corporate Governance Code is the responsibility of the Bank. Our examination was limited to the procedures and implementation thereof as adopted by the Management in ensuring compliance to the conditions of the Corporate Governance Code.

This is a scrutiny and verification and an independent audit on compliance of the conditions of the Corporate Governance Code as well as the provisions of relevant Bangladesh Secretarial Standards (BSS) as adopted by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries of Bangladesh (ICSB) in so far as those standards are not inconsistent with any condition of this Corporate Governance Code.

We state that we have obtained all the information and explanations, which we have required, and after due scrutiny and verification thereof, we report that, in our opinion:

- (a) The Bank has complied with the conditions of the Corporate Governance Code as stipulated in the above-mentioned Corporate Governance Code issued by the Commission subject to the remarks as stated in the Status of Compliance Statement;
- (b) The Bank has complied with the provisions of the relevant Bangladesh Secretarial Standards (BSS) as adopted by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries of Bangladesh (ICSB) as required by this Code;
- (c) Proper books and records have been kept by the Bank as required under the Companies Act 1994, the Securities Laws and other relevant laws; and
- (d) The Governance of the Bank is satisfactory.

IBBPLC's Approach to Integrated Reporting

Our Integrated Reporting promotes a more cohesive and efficient approach that aims to improve the quality and connectivity of information, enhance accountability and stewardship for the broad base of capital capitals (financial, manufactured, intellectual, human, social and relationship, and natural). Supports integrated thinking, decision-making and actions that focus on the value creation over the short, medium and long term. Our integrated report is a concise communication about how an organization's strategy, governance, performance and prospects aligned with business model. It encompasses the efforts we have undertaken towards contributing to economic progress, environmental sustainability and social well-being for a better Bangladesh.

Guiding Principles of IBBPLC for preparation and presentation of an integrated report

Strategic focus and future orientation provides insight into the organization's strategy, and how it relates to the organization's ability to create value in the short, medium and long term, and to its use of and effects on the capitals.

Connectivity of information shows a holistic picture of the combination, interrelatedness and dependencies between the factors that affect the organization's ability to create value over time.

Stakeholder relationships provides insight into the nature and quality of the organization's relationships with its key stakeholders, including how and to what extent the organization understands, takes into account and responds to their legitimate needs and interests.

Materiality discloses information about matters that substantively affect the organization's ability to create value over the short, medium and long term. Conciseness.

Reliability and completeness includes all material matters, both positive and negative, in a balanced way and without material error.

Consistency and comparability. Our report presented on a basis that is consistent over time and in a way that enables comparison with other organizations to the extent it is material to the organization's own ability to create value over time.

Elements that are linked with our integrating Reporting

Organizational overview and external environment	Integrated report clearly outlines the purpose, mission and vision and provides essential context of culture, ethics and values, ownership and operating structure, principal activities and markets, competitive landscape and market positioning. This report also focuses the following 05 (five) major areas in its operations: Sustainable business relationship, Financial inclusion through fintech solutions, Happy corporate environment, Financial excellence, Upholding ethical and moral values. External environment: Significant factors affecting the external environment include aspects of the legal, commercial, social, environmental and political context that affect ability to create value in the short, medium or long term directly or indirectly. Legitimate needs and interests of key stakeholders, macro and micro economic conditions, market forces, speed and effect of technological change and societal issues are also the components of external environment.
Governance	This report provides insight about IBBPLC's leadership structure, specific processes used to make strategic decisions and to establish and monitor the culture of IBBPLC, particular actions of those charged with governance direction of IBBPLC, approach to risk management, culture, ethics and values are reflected in its operations.
Business Model	An integrated report is a system of transforming inputs, through its business activities, into outputs and outcomes that aims to fulfill the organization's strategic purposes and create value over the short, medium and long term. A business model describes the operating process of the bank.
Risks and Opportunities	Integrated report identifies the key risks and opportunities that are specific to IBBPLC. This can include identifying the specific source of risks and opportunities, which can be internal, external or a mix of the two. External sources include those stemming from the external environment. Internal sources include those stemming from our business activities.
Strategy and resource allocation	It identifies the short, medium and long-term strategic objectives of the bank. This includes linkage between our strategy and resource allocation plans and the information covered by other elements.
Performance	It contains qualitative and quantitative information about quantitative indicators with respect to targets, risks and opportunities, explaining their significance, their implications and the methods and assumptions used in compiling them, effects on the capitals including material effects on capitals up and down the value chain, the state of key stakeholder relationships, the linkages between past and current performance and the outlook of the bank.
Outlook	Integrated report highlights anticipated changes over time and provides information, built on sound and transparent analysis about our expectations that are likely to be encountered.
Basis of Preparation and Presentation	The report describe the basis of preparation and presentation of reporting process and significant frameworks and methods used to quantify or evaluate material matters which include disclosures about the capitals, time frames for short, medium and long term, aggregation and disaggregation.

Value Creation Matrix

The capitals of IBBPLC

Our glorious success and growth depends on deployment of various forms of capital. In the IR framework, the capitals comprise financial, manufactured, intellectual, human, social and relationship, and natural, although which is describe in different part and different form of the annual report.

- Financial capital The pool of funds that is:
- Available to an organization for using the provision of services
- Obtained through financing, such as debt, equity, or generated through operations or investments
- Manufactured capital – Manufactured physical objects (as distinct from natural physical objects) that are available to an organization for using in the production of goods or the provision of services, including:
 - Buildings
 - Equipment
- Intellectual capital – Organizational, knowledge-based intangibles, including:
 - Intellectual property, such as patents, copyrights, software, rights and licenses
 - “Organizational capital” such as knowledge, systems, procedures and protocols
- Human capital – People’s competences, capabilities, and experience, and motivations to innovate, including:
 - Alignment with and support for an organization’s governance framework, risk management approach, and ethical values

- Ability to understand, develop and implement an organization’s strategy
- Loyalties and motivations for improving processes, goods and services, including their ability to lead, manage and collaborate
- Social and relationship capital

Relate within and between communities, groups of stakeholders and other networks, and the ability to share information to enhance individual and collective well-being. Social and relationship capital includes:

- Shared norms, and common values and behaviors
- Key stakeholder relationships, and the trust and willingness to engage that an organization has developed and
- Strives to build and protect with external stakeholders
- Intangibles associated with the brand and reputation that an organization has developed
- An organization’s social license to operate
- Natural capital – All renewable and non-renewable environmental resources and processes that provide goods or services that support the past, current or future prosperity of an organization. It includes:
 - Air, water, land, minerals and forests
 - Bio diversity and eco-system health

Not all capitals are equally relevant or applicable to all organizations. While most organizations interact with all capitals to some extent, these interactions might be relatively minor or so indirect that they are not sufficiently important to include in the integrated report.
